Farmingville, NY -

On April 18, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Jane Bonner joined the Mount Sinai Harbor Advisory Committee and local volunteers from the community to participate in the "William Waltz Annual Cedar Beach Clean Up" in Mount Sinai. The event was organized by Anthony Graves, the Town's Chief Environmental Analyst and Brady Wilkins, the Peconic Baykeeper. Pictured above are Councilwoman Bonner, Mr. Wilkins, Mount Sinai Harbor Advisory President Patty Van Middellem and Supervisor Romaine at the Mt. Sinai Yacht Club, where the clean-up kicked off.

"Cedar Beach is one of the Town's most popular destinations and it is up to everyone to protect and preserve its beauty. I commend the Mt. Sinai Harbor Advisory Committee for organizing the clean-up and thank all the volunteers who make this event a success year after year."

"I have been participating in the Cedar Beach Clean Up for many years," said Councilwoman Bonner. "It's great to see so many people come down to work on such a beautiful day to lend a hand when they could be doing something else. Thanks to all of the volunteers for helping to make Mount Sinai Harbor a cleaner place for everyone to enjoy."
